I Have Diabetes Too!

Video, P-I, 10, 2005.

Kids who are diagnosed with diabetes are naturally curious about other kids with this medical condition. They'd like the reassurance that they aren't alone and that they can manage it. "I Have Diabetes Too!" is an informative and positive look at kids with diabetes. It features them enjoying all types of fun activities, talking about life with diabetes and performing standard blood testing procedures. This is not a clinical or technical educational video. However, its the perfect video for diversity education and inclusion programs, the medical professionals and pediatric clinics, healthcare organizations, support groups, schools and camps.

Building Blocks of Good Character

Video Kit, P-I, 20, cc, Sunburst, 2003.

After a series of brief scenarios featuring kids demonstrating kindness, fairness, forgiveness, and good citizenship, the young host poses some questions for viewers: Do they know what it means to have good character? Would they describe themselves as someone with good character? Do they think their friends have good character? Looking at different scenarios and responding to the questions that follow each one, she tells them, can get them thinking about what good character means.
